FRIDAY, SEPT. 5, 1890.

NUPTIAL CELEBRATION.

Marriage of Dr. E. L. Hutchinson and Miss Alice Lillian Afong.

A very gay wedding party was that celebrating the marriage of Dr. Edson Lewis Hutchinson and Miss Alice Lillian Afong, given by the parents of the bride, Mr. C. Afong (Chinese Commercial Agent) and Mrs. Afong, at their Waikiki residence last night. The couple were married by the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh at half-past seven in presence of a family party. Half an bour later the happy pair held a reception, when a large throng tendered felicitations.

Messrs. F. B. McStocker and Arthur Johnstone ushered the guests inside, where they were heartily welcomed by the host and hostess, and presented to Dr. and Mrs. Hutchinson. The twain made one looked happy and handsome, standing floral marriage bell, the bride costumed in cream grosgrain trimmed with real lace, in her hair diamond ornaments bestowed by her father, having a veil decked with orange blossoms and lilies, and holding a bouquet of red carnations. Miss Marie Afong was maid of honor, in pink satin brocade costume and bearing a bouquet like the bride's. Mr. Oliver C. Swain well maintained the combined dignity and suavity required in the best man.

The house from within and without presented views of fairyland beauty. Hundreds of colored lanterns glimmered amidst the palm grove surrounding the building. The verandas and pavilions were likewise gaily illuminated. A canvas-roofed lanai, with floor of strewn grass and walls of all nations' flags, set in an angle of the rambling domicile, constituted the main refreshment salon, and, brilliantly lighted with chandeliers and chromatic lanterns of fantastic designs, made an inviting retreat. The viands the were choicest substantials and delicacies, including beverages for all tastes, served on elegant little tables round which the company easily disposed itself, at the call to supper, in many pleasant groups. In the parlor many handsome presents were displayed, comprising articles of utility and ornament, and including costly plate and jewelry. The Royal Hawaiian Band, conducted by Prof. Berger, played in the park at the rear of the house, till after ten o'clock, after which the string contingent played for dancing till after midnight. Comfortable chairs and settees were set out amongst the trees, affording the highest charms of an open-air concert. Below is a list of the guests at the reception: His Majesty the King, Her Majesty the Queen, Her R H Princess Liliuokalani, Hon J O Dominis, Hon A S Cleghorn, Col G W Macfarlane, H M's Chamberlain, Mr and Mrs Jas W Robertson, Vice-Chamberlain and Lady-in-waiting, the Misses Stevens, His Excellency J A and Mrs Cummins, Minister of Foreign Affairs, His Excellency Godfrey Brown, Minister of Finance, Mr and Mrs W W Hall, Miss Ada Jones. HONOLULU FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Board of Representatives of the Honolulu Fire Department held its monthly meeting last night, in the room of Engine Co., No. 2, the Chief Engineer, C. B. Wilson, presiding. Sixteen members answered to the roll call. Communications were received from No. 1 Company Hook and Ladder, and the Fire Police. The latter specified the members of its company sent to represent it on the Board of Representatives. The correspondence was all accepted and placed on file. Fines were remitted in several cases of absence at previous meetings, the absentees furnishing satisfactory reasons for non-attendance. The report of the ball auditing committee was read, accepted, and placed on file, and the committee discharged. A corrected draft of the constitution and by-laws of the Fire Police Company was read, the corrections being mainly to make the phraseology used conform to law. Ordered printed. Money from the sick fund for the relief of members of company No. 1 injured at recent fires was placed at the disposal of the Foreman of that company, A little desultory talk followed, and the meeting adjourned.

THE PEOPLE'S EXCURSION.

An excursion train will start for Pearl city at 1:45 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, leaving there on return at 4:15. The attraction is a baseball game between the Barracks and Pauahi clubs, belonging to the Amateur Baseball League. The Railway Company have placed the rates of fare so low that no one need deny themselves the pleasure offered on the score of expense. Think of it! A twenty-four mile ride in an open car fitted up for the occasion for less than 12 cents per mile, or 35 cents for the round trip. Anyone preferring the coaches can procure a ticket for 50 cents.

ATTENTION is invited to the notification in another column relating to Oahu College and Punahou Preparatory School.

THE last holiday of the midsum-mer vacation is finished to-day. The teachers are now preparing to buckle to again for the work of a new term.
